BACON (F.) Works, English and Latin, with Life, Notes, and Translations of the Latin pieces by Basil Montagu, 8vo. 16 vols. in 17, plates, uncut, Pickering, 1825, 8l. 8s.

A very clean original copy, not having been made up as is frequently the case, the work having been published in separate volumes.

BACON (N.) Historical Discourse on the Government of England, 4to. 2 vols. in 1, calf, wants frontispiece, 1647-51, 3s. 6d.

This work is highly praised in the Earl of Chatham's Letters to his Nephew.

BARROW (Sir J.) Life of George Lord Anson, 8vo. portrait, sprinkled calf gilt, marbled leaves, by Riviere, 1839, 12s.

Anson has been styled the English bull-dog of the seas, and the history of his life presents more the appearance of a romance than that of a plain and unvarnished record of facts.

BARROW (J.) Life and Correspondence of Admiral Sir W. Sidney Smith, 2 vols. 8vo. portraits, sprinkled calf gilt, marbled leaves, by Riviere, 1848, 16s.

BELLENDENUS (Guli.) De Statu lib. III. I. De Statu prisce Orbis in Religione, Re Politica et Literis; II. De Statu Principis et Imperii; III. De Statu Reip. et Urbis imperantis Orbi, 8vo. with the second vol. containing the Preface of Dr. Parr, 5 plates and portrait, both uncut, 1788, 5s.

A very respectable place should be assigned to a Scotchman by name Bellenden. Bellenden seems to have taken a more comprehensive view of history in his first book, and to have reflected more philosophically on it than perhaps any one had done before; but the celebrated preface of the editor has had the effect of eclipsing the original author. Parr is constantly read and talked of, Bellenden never.

DODINGTON (G. Bubb). Diary from 1749 to 1761, with Appendix of Original Papers, 8vo. uncut, 1809, 2*s*. 6*d*.

Bubb's Diary is curious indeed, not so much from the secrets it blabs, which are rather characteristic than novel, but from the wonderful folly of the author, who tells all he knew of himself, though scarce an event that does not betray his character, and (which is still more surprising) that he should disclose the contempt in which he is held. However, with all his faults, the book is valuable.—HORACE WALPOLE.

DONNE (J.) Poems, with Elegies on the Author's Death ; to which are added divers copies under his own hand never before in print, 12mo. portrait by Marshall, calf gilt, 1650, 6*s*.
